

LORD NORTHCLEIFF GIVES HIGH PRAISE TO THE RUSSIANS

Publisher, in Review of War, Also Gives Credit to Belgium and France.

WORK OF THE BRITISH.

They Have Bottled Up German Navy and Swept German Commerce From Sea.

By Lord Northcliffe.
Leading newspaper publisher of Great Britain; controller of the Times, and numerous other periodicals.

(Written especially for the United Press; copyright, 1915, by the United Press; copyrighted in Great Britain.)

LONDON, July 28.—These are my views of the first year of the war from my own purely individual British standpoint.
First—I desire to give credit to the Russians, who enabled a non-military and unprepared nation like ourselves to hold off colossal German attacks at the beginning of the war.

Secondly, I desire to say that the efforts of France are insufficiently appreciated in the United States, and to a lesser extent in Great Britain.
Owing to the efforts of socialist politicians and professional peacemongers, France was not prepared for the sudden German onslaught.
She has pulled herself together in marvellous fashion, and her army today is the best in the world. Her losses, nobly borne, amount, I believe, to nearly a million and a half, killed, wounded and missing.

Of the efforts of little Belgium I need not speak to Americans. The valor of the small Belgian Army is only equalled by the magnificent generosity of the American people, who are enabling Belgium to exist. Italy, Serbia and tiny Montenegro are all entitled to great praise.

Of our own part in the war it is a little invidious for an Englishman to speak, but there has not, I think, been due recognition in the United States and Canada of the fact that our fleet has swept the Germans from the seas and holds billions of dollars' worth of German shipping in bondage.

Submarining may increase, but so, I may say without revealing secrets, are our means of counteracting the submarines.

Our fleet has not been so badly meddled by the politicians as has our army. One of our great seamen, Fisher, resigned because of political interference in a certain portion of the sea war.

The English, Scotch, Welsh, Irish, Canadian, Australian, South African and Indian soldiers, and the large number of Americans who have joined our forces in one way or the other have exhibited in the face of twentieth century killing machines a bravery that equals any previous examples of courage in the world's history.

Speculations as to whether the United States can or should enter the fight, or whether they will be bullied into it, do not bulk as largely here as they are made to do in the newspapers of the United States. We know that we have the sympathy of the vast proportion of Americans.
We know that the allies can finish this fight by themselves. The responsibility of entering into the bloodiest conflict in the history of the world is one for the American people themselves to decide.

My own opinion is that they have been well led in this matter up to the present. I am not able to fathom the reasons for the violent anti-American campaign conducted by the official newspapers of Germany. It may be that the Germans are attempting to frighten the Americans. Such a campaign was made against England just a year ago. It had no effect whatever on English public opinion, which, directly little Belgium was attacked, rallied instantly to the cause of freedom.

I do not think that the German Government's action as evidenced by its press hostility will in any way influence American opinion.
I have no more to say about the future of the war than I have said on previous occasions. The war stands very much where it did, with this difference: that whereas a great many Germans have been killed, the allies have not yet reached their full strength in men. Our politicians have done very much what your politicians did in the early days of the Civil War. Politicians are about the same all the world over. We have not produced our Lincoln or our Grant—excellent British names both—but I have no doubt that we shall.

MIDDIES REACH SAN DIEGO

Arrive on Cruise From Annapolis to Visit Panama Fair.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 28.—The Battleships Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin, having on board 850 midshipmen of the Naval Academy at Annapolis on their annual practice cruise, arrived in San Diego Harbor shortly after 8 A.
M. to-day.

On their way up the Mexican Coast the Ohio lost one of her propellers and the passage of the ships was delayed.
Col. Theodore Roosevelt is scheduled to review the middies on the grounds of the Panama Pacific Fair.

ARMY BALLOON EXPLODES.

Three Men Killed and Twenty Hurt in Hangar Crash.

LONDON, July 28.—Three persons were killed and twenty injured by the explosion of an army dirigible in its hangar at Wormwood Scrubs to-day.
The dead and injured were mostly mechanicians employed about the aviation camp. It is believed that escaping gas set off by a lighted cigar.

No Seized Cotton Resold to Neutrals

LONDON, July 28.—The Foreign Office denied in the House of Commons this afternoon a statement published recently in the United States that American cotton seized by the British authorities is being reshipped to be resold in neutral ports.

Miners Not Preparing for Strike.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 28.—
The mine workers of the anthracite field are not preparing for a strike at the expiration of the present agreement next spring, according to a statement issued by John P. White, President of the United Mine Workers of America. He said that published statements to the contrary were "absolutely unfounded."

GERMANS PUBLISH NEW DOCUMENTS ACCUSING BRITAIN

Claim That They Prove England Enticed France and Russia Into Her Schemes.

BERLIN, July 28 (by wireless to Say-ville).—The Overseas News Agency announces that the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung will to-morrow begin the publication of a series of supplements containing the secret reports made by the Belgian Ambassadors at London, Paris and Berlin to their home governments covering the period from 1905 until 1914. These reports, it is stated, were found in Brussels by the Germans. They purport to give an unbiased description of international political events from the time of the Moroccan crisis until the beginning of the present war, and to contain an immense amount of material tending to prove the correctness of the German attitude during this time.

The Overseas Agency says: "They will state how England enticed France, and later Russia, to oppose Germany and to co-operate in the systematic isolation of Germany, drawing the net around her closer every year. The Belgian Ambassadors, especially Baron Greindl at Berlin and Leghain at Paris, prophesied that the triple entente was an element of international unrest, unlike the triple alliance, which had assured European peace for more than thirty years, while the triple entente, as these Belgian Ambassadors unanimously announced, made matters drift toward the worst."

"Thus the Belgian Ambassador at Paris, Baron Guillaume, writes under date of Jan. 16, 1914: 'I have already the honor to tell you that MM. Poincaré, Delcassé, Millerand and their friends invented and followed this nationalist, jingoist and chauvinist policy whose resurrection we have already announced. This policy is a public danger for Europe and Belgium.' Thus the secret reports are overwhelming proof of the justness of the German attitude during recent years."

BANK DEPOSITS INCREASE.

Gain of $36,966,385 From March 19 to June 23 Reported.

ALBANY, July 28.—A gain of $36,966,- 385 in the total deposits of 261 banks of deposit and discount in New York State was shown in the report for the period from March 19 to June 23 last, issued to-day by Superintendent of Banks Richards.
The total deposits was $405,977,618 on June 23, while their resources were $702,518,476. During the same period trust companies' deposits increased $141,000,000 to $1,496,753,159.

SHERIFF KINKEAD ARRESTS 99 GUARDS; HE THEN COLLAPSES

the strikers in attacking property.
Your men had not the legal right to murder in defense of property." The arms were piled into an automobile, and, marching at the head of the column, Sheriff Kinkead paraded his prisoners up East Twenty-second street to Police Headquarters, where they were held until arrangements could be made for housing them in the Hudson County Jail.

SEVEN SALOONKEEPERS ADDED TO LIST OF PRISONERS.

On the way up the street the Sheriff noticed seven saloons, the front doors of which were open, contrary to his orders. He immediately had the proprietors placed under arrest.
One of these, "Doc" O'Connor, is a political enemy of the Sheriff and has a place across the street from Police Headquarters.

On his arrival at Headquarters the Sheriff found Street Cleaning Commissioner Hugh Mara in a room with Director of Public Safety Henry Wilson and Recorder John Cain. Earlier in the day he had caused the arrest of Mara for refusing to leave a room in which the Sheriff was conferring with his deputies at City Hall last night, and Mara was out on $500 bail for a hearing to-morrow before Recorder Cain on a charge of inciting a riot.

"I am Sheriff of Hudson County," said Kinkead to-day as soon as he saw Mara, "and I order you out of here. My fists are still in good shape."

Two policemen took Mara out on the street and held him there on the Sheriff's orders until Recorder Cain said:

"See here, Gene, don't you think you could release Mara under my custody?"

"Sure, I'd do anything for you," replied the Sheriff. "He is released in your custody."

THOMAS PRIOR, Chosen Freeholder, a member of the county governing body, was next ordered out of the building on the ground that he had no official business there.

Jeremiah Baly, the discredited strike-leader, being still on his hands, the Sheriff next appointed a committee of two newspaper men from New York to decide what disposition should be made of him. The reporters voted to turn him loose and the order was issued accordingly.

Prior to the arrest of the armed guards the Sheriff visited Frank Tannenbaum, the I. W. W. leader, in the Jersey City Jail and talked with him for two hours. Then he turned him loose, remarking that Tannenbaum "was a fighter who told the truth" and that he had the makings of a good man in him if he would direct his energies on the side of law and order. He said Tannenbaum showed him documents from prominent people in New York indorsing his propaganda.

"I got into communication with some of these people by telephone," said the Sheriff, "and they were frightened to death for fear their names would appear in the papers.
I promised not to print their names if they would withdraw further support from such radical movements."

On the request of Alexander Simpson, counsel, the hearing of the thirty guards arrested on Sunday has gone over until to-morrow.

Commissioner of Public Safety Hague of Jersey City addressed the workmen of the Eagle Oil Company, who are still on strike, and advised them to return to work to-morrow, assuring them that they would undoubtedly get the same concessions as are to be made to the men at the Standard Oil plant in Bayonne. It is believed the strike at the Eagle plant will be over to-morrow.

Gov. Fielder of New Jersey to-day issued the following statement:

GOVERNOR HAS HIGH PRAISE FOR THE SHERIFF.

"I have complimented Sheriff Kinkead on his success in bringing about

LANSING IS TOLD U. S. HAS NO RIGHT TO ASK HALT IN HANGINGS

Arizona's Prosecutor Makes

Sharp Reply to Request for Reprieves for Mexicans.

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—A telegram from Secretary Lansing of the State Department, asking further re-prieves for five Mexicans under sentence to die Friday at Florence, Ariz., was received here to-day by Wiley Jones, Attorney General of Arizona.
Mr. Jones replied: "The United States has no right to interfere."

NEXT STEP ON MEXICO NOT DECIDED BY WILSON

President Says He Will Make No Announcement of Policy Until He Returns to Washington.

CORNISH, N. H., July 28.—President Wilson has not yet decided on the next step in his Mexican policy and no announcement will be made on the subject until after his return to Washington. Word to this effect came from the President to-day in answer to questions submitted to him on the Mexican situation.

The President informed newspaper men that since his arrival at the summer White House he had not received any new data on the Mexican situation from Secretary Lansing and that the Secretary had not forwarded any recommendations as to what should be done. The President did not deny that some step would be taken in the near future, as announced at the State Department at Washington.
The President has no arrangements for returning to Washington.

MUNITIONS PLANT STRIKE OFFICIALLY CALLED OFF

Walk Out of Remington Employees at Bridgeport Is Ended.

John J. Keppler, International Vice President of the Machinists' Union, telephoned to George G. Bowen, business agent of the local at Bridgeport, Conn., to-day at 2.30 o'clock that final and satisfactory arrangements had been made with the men in authority over the Bridgeport plant of the Remington Arms Company, and that the strike would be called off officially to-night.

Keppler and John J. McIntire, general organizer of the union, will go to Bridgeport from New York tonight to bring the strikers positive assurance to that effect. Four other shops in Bridgeport still have a strike on their hands, but it is believed the settling of the machinists' difficulties at the Remington plant will result in the adjustment of all the others. The iron workers and millwrights employed at the Remington plant have gone back to work already.

NEW YORKER HURT BY AUTO.

George W. Cobb Making Tour When Car Turns Turn.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 28.— George W. Cobb, prominent in the tin can industry in the State and connected with the New York office of the American Cigar Company, was badly injured in an automobile accident near Springwater at noon to-day.

The automobile struck a rock and turned turtle. Mr. Cobb was pinned under the car. Warren C. Sloan, of Rochester, the chauffeur, was killed.
The injured, all members of an inspection body which has been making a tour of the canning factories of New State are Harry L. Cannon, Bridgewater, Del.; G. Greenbaum, Seward, Del. H. Wyland, Westminster, N. Y., and William W. Osborne, Honeyoe Falls, N. Y.

a reconciliation between the Standard Oil Company and its workmen in Bayonne. I am delighted to know that the strike is over and that it has been unnecessary to call out the National Guard."

"Then you consider your judgment in the matter of sending the troops has been upheld?" the Governor was asked.

"I do," he said. "To Sheriff Kinkead belongs the credit of the achievement. The capable methods employed by him undoubtedly averted great trouble. His skill and efficiency in handling a difficult situation is deserving of great praise. Personally I am proud of Sheriff Kinkead and his conduct of affairs under trying circumstances."

Practically every workman who went on strike last week returned to work this morning. The gates of the Standard Oil Company plant, and those of the Tidewater Oil Company, the Vacuum Oil Company, and the General Chemical Company, were thrown open at 6 o'clock and an hour later all four were running full blast.
W. H. Libby, a director of the Standard Oil Company, No. 26 Broadway, to-day issued a statement in which he declared the company had been considering a general advance of wages in the Bayonne plant just before the strike took place. "We that peace and order have been restored," says the statement, "and our men have returned to work, the investigations are again progressing and the company will deal with the matter along the lines of its general policy."

The statement blames professional agitators for the Bayonne trouble and maintains that the company's guards were not guilty of any act of violence.
